

Non-Woven Supplier Excellence Award 2010

Rockline Industries is pleased to announce that Ahlstrom Nonwovens and Global Solutions Hk Ltd are the recipients of its Nonwoven Supplier Excellence Award (NSEA) and Supplier Innovation Award (SIA) respectively, for 2010.

The NSEA award was created in 2008 to enable Rockline to continually evaluate and rate its global nonwovens supply base and to recognize the best in the group.

The SIA was created in 2009 to recognize exceptional performance in the areas of Product and Process Uniqueness, Technological Advancement, Speed to Market, Sustainability and Value.

The awards will be formally presented at the annual Rockline Industries Nonwoven Supplier Presentation. This meeting is held in conjunction with INDA's VISION 2011 conference in Carlsbad, California and is attended by Rockline's key nonwoven suppliers from around the world.

The NSEA award winner for 2010 is Ahlstrom Nonwovens Windsor Locks, Connecticut facility. Karen Castle, Vice President, Sales & Marketing North America Home and Personal Nonwovens will accept the award on behalf of the Ahlstrom Windsor Locks facility.

Following the VISION conference, the NSEA award will be presented to Ahlstrom factory personnel in Windsor Locks, Connecticut by Rockline's Vice President of Manufacturing, Nick Santoleri, and Rockline's Directors of Purchasing, Tom Peters & Al Eilers.

